DECATUR, ILLINOIS:
Thursday Evening, Sept. 30.

Republican County Ticket.

For County Treasurer,
GEORGE M. WOOD.
For County Surveyor,
GEORGE V. LORING.

Mr. Park's fees as collected by him, not only pay all the salaries of himself and clerk, but some $1,100 into the treasury besides. What other county treasurer has done this? This is the reason the people want him again.—Tribune.

And if Mr. Park had not charged the county for clerk hire, there would be some $1200 more in the treasury. We do not understand that Mr. Park has anything to do with fees; the county pays him a salary for his services as Treasurer, and the fees do not belong to him any more than the taxes do. The law contemplates that a considerable amount of unpaid taxes will always be returned by the township collectors, and makes it the treasurer's business to collect those unpaid taxes, and what ever amount may have been saved the people in the way of fees is not due to Mr. Park. Every other County Treasurer, save Mr. Park, received for his services what the law proscribed, and it does not occur to us that Mr. Park is entitled to any credit for paying into the treasury funds that did not belong to him, but there are a good many people of the opinion that he might have done a better thing by accepting the salary allowed him by the Board of Supervisors, without charging the county $1200 extra for clerk hire. Surely, the fortunes of the Reform candidate must be on the wane when his organ is forced to resort to so silly a subterfuge as the above.

The Massachusetts State Convention, yesterday, resulted in the nomination of Hon. A. H. Rice, who was regarded as having the greatest popular strength of the candidates mentioned, for Governor.

If the attendance and enthusiasm at the meetings of the contending parties in Ohio are any index to the popular feeling, it is evident that the Democracy will stand a very poor chance on election day. The Republican mass meetings are the largest that have been seen in that State since the campaign of 1840, while the Democratic gatherings are almost without exception lame and spiritless affairs.

CHAS. NORTON, in a recent letter to the New York Herald, says that more than 23,000 whites and blacks have removed from Georgia, during the past five years. The next five years will witness a larger exodus, unless Democracy in that State extends justice to the laboring classes—the poor whites and blacks. Georgia has everything to make of herself a grand manufacturing center. But she will grow less prosperous every year, unless she adopts a more generous and humane policy toward her working men.

THE committee of Vermont Street Methodist Church, of Quincy, who have had on trial before them the charges against Gen. B. M. Prentiss for libel against the Rev. H. O. Hoffman, pastor of the church, on Monday last rendered a verdict declaring all the charges sustained, and suspending Prentiss for six months. Their award is as follows:

WHEREAS, We find the evidence in justification such as to show that H. O. Hoffman has been imprudent in conduct, but not criminal.

Therefore, considering this mitigating circumstance, we decide that B. M. Prentiss be suspended from this church for six months.

The official report of the condition of the Union Pacific railroad shows that it is a very prosperous institution. Its earnings for the year ending July 1st, 1875, were $11,622,000, of which about $5,600,000 are net. The interest on the Government bonds granted it is only $1,620,000, so that the road could pay this annual interest and have $3,880,000 of its net earnings left. The road is well managed, and the fact that its gross earnings are steadily increasing at the rate of ten per cent a year proves its usefulness as a highway across the continent.

GLEN COVE, L. I., Sept. 29.—Last night a boat containing Rev. Dr. Geo. B. Porteus, late pastor of All Saints' church, in Brooklyn; Lewis Benjamin and three other gentlemen, capsized, and the two former were drowned.

CROP REPORTS FOR SEPTEMBER AND AUGUST.

DESMOINES, Ia., Sept. 29.—The Society of the Army of the Tennessee met to-day, Gen. W. T. Sherman presiding, and after transacting the usual routine business adjourned till 4 p. m.
President Grant and party, including Gen. Sherman, the Secretary of War and party, arrived at 7 o'clock, and were met at the depot and escorted to their respective places of entertainment by the two companies of DesMoines troops. The houses throughout the city are beautifully decorated with flags and evergreens. The President occupied the forenoon in riding about the city, and in the afternoon he held a public reception in the court house building. At the afternoon session the Society elected Gen. Sherman President.
The next meeting will be held July 21, 22 and 23, the first two days at Philadelphia and the last day at Washington. The resolution proposing to admit privates to the Society was laid over till next year.

At the evening session the open house would not hold fifth of the crowd. The members of the Society were led by the Arsenal band, of St.
Louis, to the hall. Hon. C. G. Cole delivered the address of welcome on the part of the State of Iowa and the city of DesMoines. Gov. Fletcher delivered the annual oration, in which he reviewed the history of the Army of the Tennessee and of the Society, and the part taken by Iowa soldiers.

WENDESTON, Mass., Sept. 29.—The Republican State Convention met this morning and was called to order by W.
W. Clapp, of the Boston Journal. The usual committees were appointed, and Hon. Henry Wilson chosen president.

On taking the chair Mr. Wilson made a hard money and political reform speech. He said: "In the stress of war, when the creditors and armies were unpaid, the Government issued promises to pay and made them legal tenders. When that enactment was made, the Government, in good faith, intended that those notes should be redeemed in gold or interest bearing bonds, but ten years have passed, and these promises to pay still remain unfulfilled. Greenbacks have, indeed, largely appreciated, and we are proud of the nation. In the markets of the world, we do not, and we cannot, as Americans, take pride in the singular fact that a stray note from an unknown bank in one of the British provinces can be sold in State street for a premium of more than 12 per cent. over one of our legal tender notes, with the wealth of 40,000,000 people behind it.
The plighted faith of the nation, the honor of the Government and the enduring interests of the people, of the rich and poor, of capital and labor, all demand that the Government, by wise and prudent legislation and administration, should at the earliest practicable period make its notes equal and convertible into gold."

The first ballot for candidate for Governor resulted: Rice, 391; Long, 358; Adams, 236.

The results of the informal ballot having been announced, the first formal ballot was taken, resulting: Adams, 253; Loring, 332; Rice, 451.

Second ballot—Adams, 260; Loring, 225; Rice, 407.

Third ballot—Whole number, 998, necessary to a choice, 499. Rice, 576; Adams, 219; Loring, 99; Pierce, 96.

The nomination of Rice was made unanimous.

The platform re-affirms allegiance to the principles of the Republican party, declares adhesion to the principles of the 13th, 14th, and 15th amendments, and the constitution of the United States, and congratulates the country that the Democratic party has at last formally professed to abandon its long and bitter, but unavailing struggle, first to prevent, and afterwards to overthrow any statement of the war issues.

It declares the Republicans in Massachusetts will support no man of official position whose personal character is not an absolute guarantee of fidelity to every public trust, and invokes the condemnation of the ballot box on candidates not standing this test, whatever the trouble comes.

We will not deny to any of those who fought against us any privilege under the government which we claim for ourselves. On the contrary, we welcome all who come forward in good faith to help build up the waste places, and to perpetuate our institutions against all enemies, as brothers in full interest with us in our common heritage. But we are not prepared to apologize for the past course we took in the war. It is to be hoped that like trials may never again befall our country.

In their settlement, no class of people can more heartily join than the soldier who submitted to the dangers, trials and hardship of camp and battle field, on whichever side he may have fought, and no class of people are more interested in guarding against a recurrence of those days. Let us then begin by guarding against every enemy preventing the prosperity of free Republic-can institutions.

I do not bring into this assemblage politics, certainly not partisan politics, but it is a fair subject for soldiers, in their deliberations, to consider what may be necessary to secure the prize for which they battled, in a great country like ours, where the citizen is the sovereign and the official the servant; where no power is exercised, except by the will of the people. It is important that the sovereign of the people should foster intelligence, and the promoter of that intelligence, which is to preserve us as a free nation. If we are to have another contest in the near future, for our national existence, I predict that the dividing line will not be Mason and Dixon's line, but between patriotism and intelligence, on the one side, and superstition, ambition and ignorance on the other.

Now, the centennial year of our national existence, I believe is a good time to begin the work of strengthening the foundation of the structure commenced by our patriotic forefathers a hundred years ago, at Lexington.
Let us all labor to add all needful guarantees for the better security of free thought, free speech, free press, pure moral, unaffected religious sentiments and of equal rights and privileges to all men, irrespective of nationality, color or religion.

Encourage free schools and resolve that not one dollar of the money appropriated to their support, shall be appropriated to the support of any sectarian school; that neither the State nor Nation, or both combined, shall support institutions of learning, other than those sufficient to afford to every child in the land the opportunity of a good common school education, unmixed with sectarian, pagan or atheistic, and leave the matter of religion to the work of the church and private schools are entirely supported by private contributions. Keep the church and state forever separate. With those safeguards, I believe the battles which created the Army of the Tennessee will not have been fought in vain.

The President's speech was greeted with applause, repeated again and again.

Gen. Sherman closed the speaking for the night with a humorous and short speech, in which he said he wished all the speeches made here to-night could be printed in full and scattered broadcast through the South, to show the people there how the ex-soldiers of the north felt towards them.
